SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

7–9 December 2026

Overview

Following the success of its inaugural edition, Muscat Arbitration & Mediation Days returns from 7 to 9 December 2026. The inaugural edition highlighted the importance of sustained collaboration among legal institutions, policymakers and arbitration practitioners in strengthening dispute resolution frameworks, while fostering constructive dialogue and supporting the continued development of arbitration practice in Oman and the wider region.

Organized by the Oman Commercial Arbitration Centre (OCAC) in cooperation with the Supreme Judicial Council, Oman Investment Authority, and Oman Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the conference will bring together leading arbitrators, mediators, practitioners, judges, academics, legal advisors, arbitral institutions and business leaders from around the world. The programme will explore legal, commercial and practical developments transforming Alternative Dispute Resolution through 11 specialized panel discussions, alongside the signing of memoranda of understanding with regional and international arbitral institutions.

At a Glance

3 days dedicated to arbitration, mediation and alternative dispute resolution.

Positioning Oman as an international hub for ADR in line with Oman Vision 2040.

A diverse programme of conferences, visual presentations, panel discussions and a university moot court competition.

Broad participation across legal, judicial, institutional, academic, commercial and policymaking communities.

Second edition, building on the significant success of the inaugural edition.

An arbitration competition designed to develop and prepare national talent in arbitration and mediation.
